REGIONAL PREVENTION REPRESENTATIVE

Roshunda Davis-Johnson is a Regional Prevention Representative with Phoenix Youth and Family Services, Inc. She earned a bachelor's degree for English from the University of Arkansas in Monticello.

Roshunda has been in the field of prevention since 2010 as an Regional Prevention Representative, then a Prevention Resource Coordinator, Adult Leader for a Partnerships for Success grant, and again as a Regional Prevention Representative.

Roshunda serves five counties in Southeast Arkansas (Ashley, Bradley, Chicot, Desha, and Drew). She works with various community stakeholders on efforts to reduce the use of alcohol, tobacco, and other drugs in the community.

“My efforts reach individuals across the lifespan,” she said. “In my years working in the prevention field I developed a youth substance abuse prevention coalition that targeted underage drinking. This coalition remains active today.”

Roshunda is currently in the certification process to become a Certified Prevention Specialist.
