

LAURIE REH

REGION PREVENTION SPECIALIST

Laurie has served as a Regional Prevention Specialist in Northwest Arkansas since 1995. Federal block grant funds support her position with the Region 1 Regional Prevention Provider. In this position, Laurie's primary focus is on the Region 1 Regional Prevention Provider grant and operating budget.

She coordinates the Arkansas Prevention Needs Assessment School Survey process in Region 1. Laurie provides support to the Region 1 Regional Task Force to implement the annual NWA Drug Prevention Conference. She holds a Bachelor's Degree from the State University of New York, Plattsburgh and a Master's Degree in Adult Education from the University of Minnesota.

Laurie is a certified prevention consultant with the Arkansas Prevention Certification Board and a member of the Arkansas Prevention Network, having served in many leadership positions over the years. In 2015, Laurie's prevention efforts were recognized with the Arkansas Prevention Network's Jim Smith Lifetime Achievement Award.
